

Characterization of THAT DUDE:
 - Technically smart
 - "Off his rocker" (dude has decided to stay here all this time alone he has to be pretty crazy)
 - Obsessed with being #1. (He's very upset that you have messed up the rankings with your made up test)

Dialogue ideas:

after each "", moves on to next statement next time you talk to him. then loops once you get to end

"I've been waiting. Waiting so long..."

"Time has passed so quickly since the last person from your world was here...how long has it been... WHO KNOWS? Heh. heh."

"I know what they're trying to do...they're trying to kill me... aren't they?"

...

"Silence? That is the silence of GUILT!"

"Well, never mind that...let's talk about your test scores." (Paces around, moves to monitor to bring up your scores)

"SHAMEFUL. SHAMEFUL. What do you have to say for yourself??"

...

"Impudent child. You can't even respond? If I still had (x discipline mechanism) you would be... heh heh"

"You could never reach my level.. I am the most intelligent person in this society... and now I always will be!"

"You think you're special for being sent here? No, you were just one of many..."

"They all think that they're soo talented and sooo liked to be sent here. But you're WRONG!! ahahaha ha ha ha"

"Not like me... our society elevated those who deserved it above the scum and the idiots... like it should be"

"You all are deluded... I am the only enlightened one left... hee hee haah AHHAHA"

(need more creepiness somehow. Will look to Earthbound for inspiration.)
